

Unity for Mandela brings pride

Unity College children enthusiastically produced works of art of our late president Nelson Mandela and with huge smiles on their faces. They were also only too happy to get the freedom that comes from walking and cleaning the surrounding Chartwell Country Estates area. "[We are] so proud of our learners," said Michelle Kirk from Unity College. #specialday. Remembering a #legend.

