1. Introduction

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2 of 2000 (“PAIA” or “the Act”) was enacted on 3 February 2000 coming into effect 9 March 2001 and the Protection of Personal Information Act, 4 of 2013 (POPIA) was enacted in November 2013 and came into effect 1 July 2020. The Information Regulator is now responsible for regulating both the flow and protection of information in terms of PAIA and POPIA respectively. The purpose of PAIA being to exercise the rights contained in Section 32(2) of the Constitution, which provides that any person has a right to gain access to any information held by a private or public body and POPIA to protect the constitutional right to privacy. If a record is requested from a private body, the requester must prove that the record is required for the exercise or protection of a right. The Information Regulator is mandated with overseeing compliance with both PAIA and POPIA.

2. Purpose

Despite being classified as a small business, with an exemption from complying with the PAIA Manual requirement, Unity College School is committed to protecting the right to privacy while advocating transparency in all its business activities. The purpose of this policy is to set out the records and information held by Unity College School and the procedure to acquire such records and information from Unity College School. The latest version of this policy must always be consulted and can be found on <https://unity-college.org.za/documents/>
